Question 1:

How can churches today get back to a unity among the gathered? Can unity exist even among those who disagree with one another?

Question 2:

If it was so important that Judas' office be filled after his betrayal and death, then what does that suggest about the filling of the offices of the other twelve when they eventually died?

Question 3:

How were the disciples casting of lots not gambling, or was it? Is it better to have personal voting for key church elections, as we do now? Why or why not?
